RE: Corporate filings

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing this letter to explain why my corporate filing is late. I was quite shocked when I saw the second notices that were sent to me today.

I never received any renewal forms to submit back. I have three corporations that I file for every year, however, this year I they never arrived. I do understand that it is ultimately my responsibility for filing regardless of whether or not I receive the new forms, but it is kind of an "out of sight, out of mind" subject.

In the previous years, I have never filed delinquent, and due to the recent changes imposed with the new fines and late fees, I certainly didn't make a conscious decision to "not pay" or file the corporate reports. I have already had my secretary mark off reminders for the last week of December 2000 to start looking for the 2001 corporate reports.

I spoke with Michelle in your office today, and she informed me that with a letter of explanation, it may be possible to waive the late fees. I would greatly appreciate giving my case due consideration. Had I received the forms, they would have been sent many months ago.

Sincerely,

Steve Hoffman
