ARTICLE VI — Admission of Additional Members:

Except as set forth in the regulations, no additional members shall be admitted to the company except with the unanimous written consent of all the members of the company and on such terms and conditions as shall be determined by all the members. A member may transfer his or her interest in the company as set forth in the regulations of the company, but the transferee shall have no right to participate in the management of the business and affairs of the company or become a member unless all the members of the company other than the member proposing to dispose of his or her interest approve of the proposed transfer by written consent.

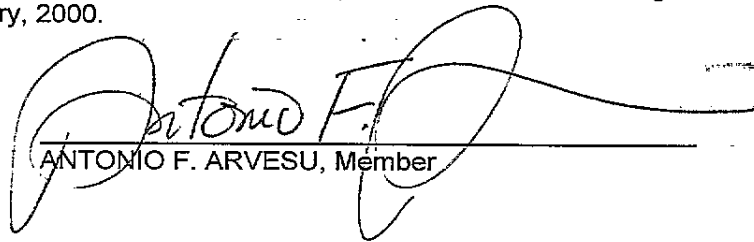

ARTICLE VII — Members' Rights to Continue Business:

Except as set forth in the regulations, the company shall be dissolved on the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy, or dissolution of a member or the occurrence of any other event which terminates the continued membership of a member in the limited liability company, unless the business of the company is continued by majority vote of all remaining members.

ARTICLE VIII — Limitation on Agency Authority of Members

Pursuant to Section 608.424 of the Florida Limited Liability Company Act, no member of the Company shall be an agent of the Company solely by virtue of being a member, and no member shall have authority to incur debt or contractual liability on behalf of the Company solely by virtue of being a member.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have signed these Articles of Organization and acknowledged them to be our act this 5th day of January, 2000.
