All of the above documents must be received by the Company prior to month end to be considered for admission at month end. Any documents received after month-end will be considered for admission in the following month.

The subscription documents contain certain representations and warranties to be made by each Investor to Mega Cap Blend Fund, LLC., and such documents are an integral part of this Offering. The subscription documents must be delivered to each Investor concurrently with the delivery of this Memorandum. Each Investor will be notified whether such Investor's subscription for Shares has been accepted by the Manager.

Suitability. The Shares will be sold to persons who are financially and otherwise qualified for an investment herein as required by Regulation D of the Securities Act of 1933. Accordingly, each prospective Member will be required to deliver a Subscription Agreement including Suitability Disclosure, included as part of the Subscription Documents (Exhibit "C", hereto), which contains certain representations and warranties as to his qualification and suitability for an investment in the Shares.

Inquiry is made as to whether an investor is an "accredited investor" as such term is defined under Rule 501(a) of Regulation D of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Generally, "accredited investors" include (i) any person whose individual net worth, or joint net worth with that person's spouse, at the time of his purchase exceeds $1,000,000, (ii) any person who had an individual income in excess of $200,000 in each of the two preceding years and who reasonably expects an income in excess of $200,000 in the current year (iii) any person and that person's spouse who have had a joint income of $300,000 during the preceding two years and reasonably expects to have an income of at least that amount in the current year, or (iv) certain institutional investors such as banks, insurance companies and certain employee benefit plans. Shares will be sold to no more than thirty-five (35) "non-accredited" investors who must have a tangible net worth of at least $100,000 exclusive of residence and personal property and have an annual income of at least $30,000, or have a net worth of at least $250,000, exclusive of residence and personal property.

The limited liquidity of this investment caused by restrictions on the transfer of Shares, lack of a market for the Shares, no repurchase obligation for Shares, and the tax consequences of the sale of the Shares, make investments in the Company suitable only for persons who are able to hold their Shares for a number of years. The suitability requirements stated above represent minimum suitability requirements for Investors. Accordingly, the satisfaction of applicable requirements by an Investor will not necessarily mean that the Shares are a suitable investment for such Investor. Furthermore, the Manager may modify such requirements at his discretion, and any such modification may raise the suitability requirements for Investors. The Manager reserves the right, in his sole discretion, to reject any potential investor and to limit the number of Shares acquired by any investor.

ARTICLE VI - Members Rights to Continue Business:

The right, if given, of the remaining members of the limited liability company to continue the business on the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy, or dissolution of a member or the occurrence of any other event which terminates the continued membership of a member in the limited liability company shall be:

Death, Removal, or Incompetency, Retirement, Resignation of the Manager.

The death, removal, or incompetency, retirement, or resignation of the Manager will cause the Company to find and vote for a new manager. Members will be polled to vote within one hundred and twenty (120) days after the event, provided there are at least two (2) remaining Members. A majority will decide. Additionally, the Company will be dissolved upon the election of the Manager to dissolve the Company or upon the vote of the Members holding a supermajority interest.

Bankruptcy shall not be a cause for removal of the Manager.

Dissolution of a member or the occurrence of any other event which terminates the continued membership of a member shall not be cause for termination of the Company.
