managing member or officer of the Company or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, managing member, director or officer of another limited liability company, corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against liability incurred in a manner he/she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Company and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his/her conduct was unlawful. The Company shall reimburse each person for all costs and expenses, including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, reasonably incurred by him/her in connection with any such liability in the manner provided for by law or in accordance with the regulations of the Company.

The rights accruing to any person under the foregoing provision shall not exclude any other right to which he/she may be lawfully entitled, nor shall anything therein contain or restrict the right of the Company to indemnify or reimburse such person in any proper case even though not specifically provided for herein.

ARTICLE NINE

PURPOSES AND POWERS

The general nature of the business or businesses to be transacted and which the limited liability company is authorized to transact, in addition to those authorized by the laws of the State of Florida, and the powers of the limited liability company, shall be as follows:

1. To engage in the business of an ambulatory surgery center and in any activity or business authorized under the Florida Statutes.
2. In general, to carry on any and all incidental business; to have and exercise all the powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida, and to do any and all things herein set forth to the same extent as a natural person might or could do.
3. To purchase or otherwise acquire, undertake, carry on, improve, or develop, all or any of the business, good will, rights, assets, and liabilities of any person, firm, association or corporation carrying on any kind of business of a similar nature to that which this limited liability company is authorized to carry on, pursuant to the provisions of the Articles; and to hold, utilize and in any manner dispose of the rights and property so acquired.
4. To enter into and make all necessary contracts for its business with any person, entity, partnership, association, corporation, domestic or foreign, or of any domestic or foreign state, government, or governmental authority, or of any political or administrative subdivision, or department thereof, and to perform and carry out, assign, cancel, or rescind any of such contracts.

5. To exercise all or any of the limited liability company powers, and to carry out all or any of the purposes, enumerated herein otherwise granted or permitted by law, while acting as agent, nominee or attorney-in-fact for any persons or corporations, and perform any service under contract or otherwise for any corporation, joint stock company, association, partnership, firm, syndicate, individual or other entity, and in such capacity or under such arrangement develop, improve, stabilize, strengthen, or extend the property and commercial interest thereof, and to aid, assist, or participate in any lawful enterprise in connection therewith or incidental to such agency, representation, or service, and to render any other service or assistance insofar as it lawfully may under the laws of the State of Florida, providing for the formation, rights, privileges and immunities of limited liability companies for profit.
6. To do everything necessary, proper, advisable or convenient for the accomplishment of any of the purposes, or the attainment of any of the objects, or the furtherance of any of the powers herein set forth, either alone or in association with others incidental or pertaining to, or going out of, or connected with its business or powers, provided the same shall not be inconsistent with the laws of the State of Florida.
7. The several clauses contained in this statement of the general nature of the business or businesses to be transacted shall be construed as both purposes and powers of this limited liability company, and statements contained in each clause shall, except as otherwise expressed, be in no way limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other clause. They shall be regarded as independent purposes and powers.

Nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed as authorizing or permitting, or purporting to authorize or permit the limited liability company to carry on any business, exercise any power, or do any act which a limited liability company may not, under the laws of the State of Florida, lawfully carry on, exercise, or do.

ARTICLE TEN

PROFITS AND LOSSES

- (a) Sharing of Profits. The members shall be entitled to the net profits from the operation of the Company business that remain after the payment of the expenses of conducting the business of the Company. Except as specifically provided otherwise in the Regulations, each member shall be entitled to such amount of the net profits in direct proportion to its ownership interest in the Company. The distributive share of the profits shall be determined and paid to the members as the Managing Members may so direct, but not later than December 31st of each year.

(b) Losses. All losses that occur in the operation of the Company business shall be paid out of the capital of the Company and the profits of the business, or, if such sources are insufficient to cover such losses, by the members in direct proportion to their respective ownership interests in the limited liability company, unless specified otherwise in the Regulations.

ARTICLE ELEVEN

LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY POWERS

All Company powers shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of this Company shall be managed under the direction of, the managing members of the Company, unless specifically provided otherwise in the Regulations. This article may be amended from time to time by a vote of the members of the Company, as set forth in the Regulations.

ARTICLE TWELVE

RESTRICTIONS ON MEMBERS

A member's interest in the Company may not be sold or otherwise transferred except with the unanimous written consent of the members, as more particularly set forth in the Regulations of the Company.

Upon the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy or dissolution of a member, or the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a member in the Company as set forth in the Regulations of the Company, the remaining members shall have the right to continue the business upon the consent of such remaining members, as more particularly set forth in the Regulations of the Company.

The undersigned, being the original members of the Company, hereby certify that the foregoing constitutes the proposed Articles of Organization of Lake Worth Surgery Center, L.L.C.
