To Whom It May Concern:

It has been brought to our attention that our Limited Liability Company, 2170 Holdings LLC, has been placed on Administrative Dissolution status since 9/28/2001.

Please let this letter serve to state that after the first filing and payment in the year 2000, we have never received notifications to file the annual report, or notification(s) that our company would be placed on Administrative Dissolution. We believe that this may have been an error on the original corporate filing application that contained an old address.

The notice may have been sent to that address, and the resident of the old address probably did not forward it to us, or send it back to you.

Therefore, we request that the $ 100.00 Reinstatement Fee be suspended, as we never received the forms. Included with this letter, please find a new Reinstatement Application, along with our check for years 2001, 2002, 2003, and 2004, for the total amount of $ 200.00.

If this is not acceptable, if it is possible, could you please process our Reinstatement Application and send us an invoice for the $ 100.00 Reinstatement fee?

If you wish to speak with us, we can be reached at 305-362-0905, and ask for Edwin G Rose, or Keith Manalio. Or, mail your response to:
