ARTICLE VI

The members of the company shall contribute to the capital of the company the cash or property as set forth in the Affidavit of Membership and Contributions attached hereto.

ARTICLE VII

Each member shall make additional capital contributions to the company only on the unanimous consent of all the members.

ARTICLE VIII

No additional members shall be admitted to the company except with the unanimous written consent of all the members of the company and on such terms and conditions as shall be determined by all the members. A member may transfer his or her interest in the company as set forth in the regulations of the company, but the transferee shall have no right to participate in the management of the business and affairs of the company or become a member unless all the other members of the company other than the member proposing to dispose of his or her interest approve of the proposed transfer by unanimous written consent.

ARTICLE IX

The company shall be dissolved on the death, bankruptcy, dissolution of a member or manager, or on the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a member in the company, unless the business of the company is continued by the consent of all the remaining members.

ARTICLE X

The company shall be managed by one or more managers in accordance with regulations adopted by the members for the management of the business and affairs of the company. The regulations may contain any provisions for the regulation and
