To Whom It May Concern,

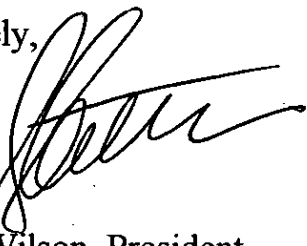

At the direction of your office, I am attaching this letter of explanation to my re-filing of my 2002 ANNUAL LLC REPORT.

My report was originally filed April 10, 2002 along with a report for a related Florida corporation. A check for both fees was attached at that time. A thorough review of our files shows that check has never been cashed, nor have the filings been returned to us.

This matter came to my attention when you sent another 2002 UBR form to be filed and we discovered you apparently never received the earlier one we sent.

Accordingly, I am refiling the report and issuing another check in the amount of $50 and ask that any penalty be waived. In the event you locate the original check, please destroy it, as I have stopped payment.

Sincerely,

Steve Wilson, President
