Re: 2005 Corporate Filing; Document # L00644

Dear Sirs:

Enclosed is the corporate filing form along with our check # 15552, in the amount of $158.75. Recently, while sorting company documents (in storage), and researching our records, it was discovered we had not filed the necessary corporate filing for the 2005 annual report. Following the hurricanes last fall, 2004, our business offices had been severely damaged due to wind and flood; resulting in relocation to a temporary office site. All of our records had to be housed in a local storage facility, which made operations difficult. Post hurricane Jeanne, all company mail was to be forwarded to our post office box. In our search it appears that the original filing documents or any notification of such had never been received. We are still undergoing renovations and will continue to use our post office box as the primary location for all mail. We regret the delay in sending the enclosed payment which would not have occurred had the situation not been occasioned as above. Please advise if any additional requirements are necessary. Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Very truly yours,
