ARTICLES OF ORGANIZATION

OF

3-2-B, L.L.C.

The undersigned hereby certify that we have associated ourselves together for the purpose of becoming a limited liability company under the laws of the State of Florida, providing for the formation, rights, privileges and immunities of limited liability companies for profit. We further declare that the following Articles shall serve as the Charter and authority for the conduct of business of the limited liability company.

ARTICLE I

Name and Principal Address

The name of the limited liability company shall be: 3-2-B, L.L.C. and its principal office shall be located at 1852 Beach Avenue, Atlantic Beach, Duval County, Florida 32233, but it shall have the power and authority to establish branch offices at any other place or places, as the members may designate. The mailing address is the same as the location of the principal office.

ARTICLE II

Purposes and Powers

In addition to the powers authorized by the laws of the State of Florida for limited liability companies, the general nature of the business or businesses to be transacted, in which the limited liability company is authorized to transact, shall be as follows: To engage in any activity or business authorized under the Florida statutes.

ARTICLE III
Exercise of Powers

All limited liability company powers shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of this limited liability company shall be managed under the direction of, the members of this limited liability company. This Article may be amended from time to time and the regulations of the limited liability company by an unanimous vote of the members of the limited liability company.

ARTICLE IV
Management

This limited liability company shall be managed by two (2) managers. The names and addresses of the persons who shall serve until the first annual meeting of members, or until their successors are elected and qualified, are as follows:

Margo Marshall
1852 Beach Avenue
Atlantic Beach, Florida 32233

Larry Bray

ARTICLE V
Membership Restrictions

Members shall have the right to admit new members by unanimous consent. Contributions required of new members shall be determined as of the time of admission to the limited liability company.

A member's interest in the limited liability company may not be sold or otherwise transferred except with unanimous written consent of all members.

On the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy or dissolution of a member, or the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a member in the limited liability company, the remaining members shall have the right to continue the business on unanimous consent of the remaining members.

ARTICLE VI
Capital Contributions

Capital contributions in the amount of $100.00 each shall be paid to the limited liability company by its members, in equal shares. Contributions to capital by a member may consist of cash, property or services rendered, or a promissory note or other obligation to contribute cash or property or to perform services. Additional contributions will be made as required for investment purposes, as determined by unanimous consent of the members. Members will make contributions in equal shares.

ARTICLE VII
Profits and Losses

(a) Profit Sharing. The members shall be entitled to the net profits arising from the operation of the limited liability company business that remain after the payment of the expenses of conducting the business of the limited liability company. Each member shall be entitled to an equal distributive share of the profits. The distributive share of the profits shall be determined and paid to the members each year on the anniversary date of the commencement of business of the limited liability company.

(b) Losses. All losses that occur in the operation of the limited liability company business shall be paid out of the capital of the limited liability company, and the profits of the business, or, if these sources are insufficient to cover such losses, by the members in equal shares.

ARTICLE VIII
Duration

This limited liability company shall have perpetual existence, until dissolved in the manner provided by law, or as provided in the regulations adopted by the members.
