written consent of the members of the company who are entitled to vote and on such terms and conditions as set forth by those members. A member may transfer his or her interest in the company as set forth in the Regulations of the company, but the transferee shall have no right to participate in the management of the business and affairs of the company or become a member unless a majority of the other members of the company entitled to vote thereon approves of the proposed transfer by written consent.

ARTICLE VII TERM OF EXISTENCE

The company shall commence its existence on the day and date these Articles of Organization are filed and accepted by the Florida Department of State, Division of Corporations. This company shall exist perpetually, unless the company is earlier dissolved as provided in these Articles of Organization.

ARTICLE VIII LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

Each member and officer, in consideration for his services, shall, in the absence of fraud, be indemnified, whether then in office or not, for the reasonable cost and expenses incurred by him in connection with the defense of, or for advice concerning any claim asserted or proceeding brought against him by reason of his being or having been a member or officer of the company or of any subsidiary of the company, whether or not wholly owned, to the maximum extent permitted by law. The foregoing right of indemnification shall be inclusive of any other rights to which any member or officer may be entitled as a matter of law.

ARTICLE IX SELF DEALING

No contract or other transaction between the company and other corporations, in the absence of fraud, shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any one or more of the members of the company is or are interested in a contract or transaction, or are directors or officers of any other corporation, and any member or members, individually or jointly, may be a party or parties to, or may be interested in such contract, act or transaction, or in any way connected with such person or person's firm or corporation, and each and every person who may become a member of the company is hereby relieved from any liability that might otherwise exist from this contracting with the corporation for the benefit of himself or any firm, association or corporation in which he may be in any way interested. Any member of the company entitled to vote may vote upon any transaction with the company without regard to the fact that he is also a director of such subsidiary or corporation.
