ARTICLE V

Admission of Additional Members

Members shall have the right to admit additional members according to the following terms and conditions: All members are required to vote on whether to admit any additional members. Members may conduct these matters telephonically, where a roll call will be taken for record keeping purposes. Each member's vote shall be weighted in proportion to the member's ownership percentage in accordance with Article IV.

ARTICLE VI

Restraint on Alienation of Shares

The members of this limited liability company shall have the power to include in the bylaws, or by separate operating agreement adopted by a majority of the members of the limited liability company, any regulatory or restrictive provisions regarding the proposed sale, transfer, or other disposition of any of the outstanding stock of the limited liability company by any of its members, or in the event of the death of any of its members. The manner and form, as well as the relevant terms, conditions, and details, of the disposition shall be determined by the members of the limited liability company; provided, however, that such regulatory or restrictive provisions shall not affect the rights of third parties without actual notice of the provisions unless the existence of the provisions is plainly noted on the certificate evidencing the ownership of such member interest. No member of the limited liability company may sell or transfer any member interest in the limited liability company except to another individual who is eligible to be a member of the limited liability company, and the sale or transfer may be made only after it has been approved at a member meeting especially called for that purpose. If any member becomes legally disqualified to conduct the stated purpose of the limited liability company in the state of Florida, is elected to public office, or accepts employment that places restrictions or limitations on the continuous rendering of such services, that member's interest shall be immediately become subject to purchase by the limited liability company in accordance with the bylaws or operating agreement adopted by the members.
