Article V – Capital Contributions

The members of the company shall contribute to the capital of the company the cash set forth in the Affidavit of Membership and Contributions.

Article VI – Additional Capital Contributions

Each member shall make additional capital contributions to the company only on the unanimous consent of all of the members, or as provided in the regulations.

Article VII – Admission of New Members

Except as set forth in the regulations, no additional members shall be admitted to the company except with the unanimous written consent of all the members of the company and on such terms and conditions as shall be determined by all the members. A member may transfer his or her interest in the company as set forth in the regulations of the company, but the transferee shall have no right to participate in the management of the business and affairs of the company or become a member unless all of the members of the company approve of the proposed transfer by written consent.

Article VIII – Members' Right to Continue Business

The company shall be dissolved on the death, bankruptcy, or dissolution of a member or manager, or on the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a member in the company, unless the business of the company is continued by a unanimous vote of the remaining members.

Article IX – Management

The company shall be managed by a manager in accordance with regulations adopted by the members for the management of the business and affairs of the company. These regulations may contain any provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of the company not inconsistent with law or these articles of organization. The name and address of the initial manager of the company are David W. Dalton, 720 Maitland Avenue, Altamonte Springs, Florida 32701.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned organizer has made and subscribed these articles of organization at Winter Park, Florida on April 18, 2001.
