DIVISION OF CORPORATIONS
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

1. The name of the Limited Liability Company is Surtreat Concrete Preservation Systems, L.L.C.
2. The effective date of the Limited Liability Company's dissolution is the date of filing of these Articles And Agreement For Dissolution with the Secretary of state.
3. The Company has been dissolved upon the written consent of all of the Members.
4. Adequate provision has been made for the debts, obligations and liabilities of the Company pursuant to F.S. §608.4421.
5. All remaining property and assets of the Company have been distributed among the Members in accordance with their respective rights and interests.
6. There are no suits pending against the Company in any court.
7. In executing these Articles and Agreement for Dissolution, the undersigned Members of the Limited Liability Company agree on behalf of themselves and on behalf of the Company, that any and all claims, suits and causes of action, if any, which the Members may have against each other arising out of the operation of the Company, or its affairs prior to dissolution, or in any way related thereto, shall survive the dissolution of the Company. It shall not be a defense available to any party in any such legal proceedings that the claims are extinguished because the parties agreed to voluntarily dissolve the Company. Moreover, any claims, suits and causes of action, if any, which may have existed in favor of the Company at the time of the dissolution against any of the undersigned Members or against any third party shall also not be deemed waived or released by dissolution and any such claims, suits and causes of action are hereby distributed to the undersigned Members in their percentage ownership of the Company as an asset of the Company at the time of dissolution; and any Member shall be authorized to, and shall have legal standing to, pursue any such claims, suits and causes of action, if any, on behalf of the Company (and derivatively on behalf of its Members) after the dissolution of the Company, it being the intent of the undersigned Members that the dissolution of the Company shall not in any way extinguish any such claims, suits and causes of action, if any.

8. This Articles And Agreement For Dissolution may be executed in counterparts, duplicate originals, each of which shall constitute an original copy of this Articles And Agreement For Dissolution.

DATED: 19th day of December, 2002.

Signatures of the Members have the same percentage of Membership Interests necessary to approve the dissolution.
