ARTICLES OF REVOCATION OF DISSOLUTION FOR NULIFE SOLUTIONS, LLC
A Florida Limited Liability Company

Pursuant to Section 608.4411, Florida Statutes, NuLife Solutions, LLC, a Florida limited liability company (Document Number L01000010312), revokes its Articles of Dissolution prior to the expiration of 120 days following the file date of the Articles of Dissolution (January 23, 2009):

1. The Articles of Revocation misstated a number of facts and were not validly filed for the following reasons:
 - A. Item 4 of the Articles of Dissolution stated that the LLC had no income or assets since August, 2007. In fact, the LLC still owns and/or has a claim to, at a minimum, client files, intellectual property rights, and claims being pursued through litigation.
 - B. Item 5 states that all debts, obligations and liabilities of the LLC have been paid or discharged. In fact, the LLC has a number of outstanding claims against it.
 - C. Item 6 states that all remaining property and assets have been distributed among the members in accordance with their rights and interests. However, the identity and percentage of ownership of the members is being contested in court and one of the parties claiming ownership of a substantial interest and control of a majority voting interest received no distribution of assets nor an accounting for such distribution.
 - D. Item 7 states that adequate provision has been made for the satisfaction of any judgement. However, no known provision has been made by the LLC to satisfy a counter-claim that has been lodged against the LLC in one of the LLC's suits.
 - E. The signature block states that the Articles of Dissolution were signed by the "members having the same percentage of membership interest necessary to approve the dissolution." However, the person executing the Articles of Dissolution did not, at the time of the execution of the Articles of Dissolution, own or control any interest in the LLC.

The Articles of Dissolution were filed by one of the members of the LLC in an inappropriate attempt to circumvent ongoing legal proceedings and to defraud another member. For the foregoing reasons the Articles of Dissolution were invalid when executed and filed and are hereby revoked.

2. This revocation of dissolution was authorized in the same manner as the dissolution on May 14, 2009.

Executed by the Member having the same percentage membership interest as is necessary to approve the Revocation of Dissolution.
