ARTICLE V

Members Rights to Continue Business

Upon the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy, dissolution of a member, or the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a member in this professional limited liability company, the remaining members shall have the right to continue the business in accordance with the Operating Agreement of this company.

ARTICLE VI

Management

This professional limited liability company shall be managed by one (1) or more managers. The name and address of the person who shall serve as manager until the first annual meeting of members or until such person's successor is elected and qualified shall be as follows:

THOMAS M. METTLER

340 Royal Poinciana Way
Suite 340
Palm Beach, Florida 33408

ARTICLE VII

Restrictions on Membership

Individual members must be licensed to practice the profession of law as a member of the Florida Bar. The shareholders of any member that is a professional service corporation and the members of any member that is a professional limited liability company and individual partners or shareholders of any professional service corporation partner of a partnership that is a member, must each be licensed to practice the profession of law as a member of the Florida Bar. Existing members shall have the right to admit new members subject to the restrictions of these Articles of Organization and the Operating Agreement of the company. Contributions required of new members shall be determined as of the time of admission to the professional limited liability company in accordance with the Operating Agreement of this professional limited liability company.

A member's interest in the professional limited liability company may not be sold or otherwise transferred except to a person licensed to practice the profession of law in the State of Florida in accordance with the Operating Agreement of this professional limited liability company.

ARTICLE VIII

Operating Agreement

In furtherance and not in limitation to the powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida and the United States of America, the members of this professional limited liability company are expressly authorized to frame and adopt any such Operating Agreement for the professional limited liability company as is not inconsistent with the laws of the State of Florida or the United States of America or these Articles of Organization. The members are further expressly authorized to add to, delete from or otherwise amend the Operating Agreement of this professional limited liability company.

ARTICLE IX

Purposes and Powers

A. This professional limited liability company is organized for the following purposes and shall have the following powers:

1. To engage in every aspect of the practice of the profession of law as a professional limited liability company, to perform any and all services ancillary thereto and to own, lease and/or operate offices for the purpose of providing professional legal services.

2. To own real and personal property, to enter into contracts and agreements, and to engage in any lawful business necessary or appropriate in the rendering of the professional legal services authorized under these Articles of Organization.

3. To invest its funds in real estate, mortgages, stocks, bonds and any other types of investments permitted by law.

4. To do everything necessary, proper or convenient for the accomplishment of the purposes set forth herein, and to do every other act incidental thereto which is not forbidden under the laws of the State of Florida, or by the provisions of these Articles of Organization.

B. The professional legal services provided by this professional limited liability company shall be carried out only through members, managers, employees and agents, each of whom is duly licensed or otherwise legally qualified to render professional legal services as a member of the Florida Bar.

ARTICLE X

Amendment

These Articles of Organization may be amended by a vote of members representing Seventy-Five Percent (75%) of the ownership interest in this professional limited liability company.
