ARTICLES OF AMENDMENT
To
ARTICLES OF ORGANIZATION
Of
LAKESIDE FAMILY PRACTICE, L.L.C. a Florida Limited Liability Company

Pursuant to Section 608.411 Florida Statutes, the undersigned Florida limited liability company hereby adopts the following articles of amendment to its articles of organization.

1. The text of each amended Article of the Articles of Organization is:

"ARTICLE 1

NAME

The name of this company is LAKESIDE FAMILY PRACTICE, P.L.

ARTICLE 3

PURPOSE

The general nature of the business to be transacted by this company and the purposes for which it is formed are as follows:

(a) To engage in every phase and aspect of the business of rendering the same professional services to the public that a doctor of osteopathy licensed under the laws of the State of Florida is authorized to render, but such professional services shall be rendered only through members, employees, or agents of this company who are duly licensed under the laws of the State of Florida to render professional medical services therein.

(b) To promote medical, and scientific research and knowledge; to furnish related laboratory and clinical services; to invest the funds of this company in real estate, mortgages, stocks, bonds or any other types of investments, and to own real and personal property, enter into contracts and engage in any lawful business necessary for the rendering of such professional services.

(c) To do everything necessary and proper for the accomplishment or furtherance of any of the purposes or objectives of this company enumerated in the Articles of Organization, or any amendment thereto, necessary or incidental to the protection and benefit of this company; and in general, either alone or in association with other corporations, companies, firms or individuals, to carry on any lawful pursuit necessary or incidental to the accomplishment or furtherance of such purposes or objectives of this company.

(d) It is intended that this Company may conduct and transact any business lawfully authorized and not prohibited by Chapter 621, Florida Statutes, as the same may be from time to time amended. All of the company powers set forth in Chapter 608 of the Florida Statutes and in Chapter 621 of the Florida Statutes shall be applicable to this company except that if any of the provisions of Chapter 621 are interpreted to be in conflict with Chapter 608, the provisions of Chapter 621 shall take precedence.

ARTICLE 6

ADMISSION AND DISQUALIFICATION OF MEMBERS

The members of this company shall be limited to individuals duly licensed to render services as a doctor of osteopathy under the laws of the State of Florida or entities formed pursuant to Chapter 621 Florida Statutes whose business purpose is limited to rendering the same professional services to the public of a doctor of osteopathy licensed under the laws of the State of Florida, and any other business purpose incidental thereto. No member of this company may sell or transfer a membership interest in this company except to another individual or entity who is eligible to be a member of this company. The members of this company are given the right to admit additional eligible members upon the condition that each new eligible member is approved for admission by vote or consent in writing of not fewer than one hundred percent (100%) of the members then existing.

If any member who is a natural person, or all professional employees of an entity member of this company who has been rendering medical services to the public, shall become legally disqualified to render such services within the State of Florida, or restrictions or limitations exist upon the member's continuing the rendering of such professional services, then said member shall sever all financial interest in this company forthwith."

2. The above stated amendment was adopted by the members of this company on the 30th day of November, 2001.

3. All of the members of the company (the sole voting group) voted to amend the Articles of Organization as herein provided. The number of votes cast by such voting group was sufficient for approval by said group.

Dated this 30th day of November, 2001.
