ARTICLE VI
ADDITIONAL CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS

Each member shall make additional capital contributions to the company only on the unanimous consent of all the members, or as provided in the regulations.

ARTICLE VII
RESTRICTIONS ON MEMBERSHIP

Except as set forth in the regulations, no additional members shall be admitted to the company except with the unanimous written consent of all the members of the company and on such terms and conditions as shall be determined by all the members. Contributions required of new members shall be determined as of the time of admission to the company. Except as set forth in the regulations, a member's interest in the company may not be sold or otherwise transferred, except with unanimous written consent of all members. Upon the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy or dissolution of a member, or the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a member in the company, the remaining members shall have the right continue the business upon unanimous consent of such remaining members.

ARTICLE VIII
PURPOSES AND POWERS

Except as set forth in the regulations, the general nature of the business or businesses to be transacted and which the company is authorized to transact in addition to those authorized by the laws of the State of Florida, and the powers of the company, shall be as follows:

1. To engage in any activity or business authorized under the Florida Statutes.
2. In general, to carry on any and all incidental business; to have and exercise all the powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida, and to do any and all things herein set forth to the same extent as a natural person might or could do.
3. To purchase or otherwise acquire, undertake, carry on, improve or develop, all or any of the business, goodwill, rights, assets and liabilities of any person, firm, association, or corporation, carrying on any kind of business of a similar nature, to that which this company is authorized to carry on, pursuant to the provisions of the Articles, and to hold, utilize and in any manner dispose of the rights and property so acquired.
4. To enter into and make all necessary contracts for its business with any person, entity, partnership, association, corporation, domestic or foreign, or of any domestic or foreign state, government or governmental authority, or of any political or administrative subdivision or department thereof, and to assign, cancel or rescind any of such contracts.

5. To exercise all or any of the company powers and to carry out all or any of the purposes enumerated herein, otherwise granted or permitted by law, while acting as agent, nominee, or attorney-in-fact, for any persons or corporations, and perform any service under contract or otherwise for any corporation, joint stock company, association, partnership, attorney-in-fact, syndicate, individual or other entity, and in such capacity or under such arrangement develop, improve, stabilize, strengthen, or extend the property and commercial interest thereof, and to aid, assist, or participate in any lawful enterprise in connection therewith or incidental to such, agency, representation, or service, or to render any other service or assistance insofar as it lawfully may under the laws of the State of Florida, providing for the formation, rights, privileges, and immunities of limited liability companies for profit.
6. To do everything necessary, proper, advisable, or convenient for the accomplishment of any of the purposes, or the attainment of any of the objects, or the furtherance of any of the powers herein set forth, either alone or in association with others, incidental or pertaining to; or going out of, or connected with its business or powers, provided the same shall not be inconsistent with the laws of the State of Florida.
7. The several clauses contained in this statement of the general nature of the business or businesses to be transacted shall be construed as both purposes and powers of this company; and statements contained in each clause shall, except as otherwise expressed, be in no way limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other clause. They shall be regarded as independent purposes and powers.
8. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed as authorizing or permitting, or purporting to authorize or permit, the company to carry on any business, exercise any power, or do any act which a limited liability company may not under the laws of the State of Florida, lawfully carry on, exercise or do.

ARTICLE IX MANAGEMENT

The Company shall be managed by a manager or managers in accordance with regulations adopted by the members for the management of the business and affairs of the company. These regulations may contain any provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of the company not inconsistent with law or these articles of organization. The name and address of the initial manager of the company is:
