ARTICLE VII
DEATH OR INCAPACITY OF A MEMBER

The Limited Liability Company shall not be terminated by the death, insanity, bankruptcy, withdrawal or expulsion of any member or members, provided that such member or members do not own, in the aggregate, more than a 49.9% interest in the Limited Liability Company.

Further, this Limited Liability Company shall not be terminated by the death, retirement, insanity, withdrawal, or expulsion of one or more of any members who do own, in the aggregate, in excess of 49.9% interest of the Company if a majority in interest and number of the remaining members of the Company elect to continue the business of the Limited Liability Company, and provided further that there shall be delivered to the Limited Liability Company an opinion, that neither the grant nor the exercise of the powers of the members by consenting to continue the Limited Liability Company and elect a new manager or managers will adversely affect either the limited liability or tax status of a Limited Liability Company. Upon an affirmative vote of the majority in interest of the members such business shall be continued and a new manager or managers elected, conditioned on the new manager or managers accepting all responsibilities, and releasing the former managers from all liability in form satisfactory to them.

In the event that such an opinion cannot be obtained, then upon the affirmative vote of 100% of the remaining membership, they may elect to reform the Limited Liability Company and elect a new manager or managers in the place of the former managers and continue the Limited Liability Company's business. In such event, the existing Limited Liability Company shall be dissolved and all of its assets and liabilities shall be contributed to a new Limited Liability Company which shall be formed and all parties to this agreement and future members as may exist at the time of such dissolution and such new managers shall become a member to such new Limited Liability Company, and this agreement as it may from time to time have been amended shall constitute the governing document for the formation of such new entity.
