ARTICLE V - CLASS OF MEMBERS

The Company shall have two classes of members. One class of member shall be the active, voting members identified as managing members in the operating agreement. The other class of member shall be the passive, non-voting members of the Company except as provided for herein or in the regulations or operating agreement of the Company. Only the managing members shall have the authority to vote with respect to the active management of the business affairs of the Company. The other passive, non-voting members shall not participate in any way in the management of the Company business.

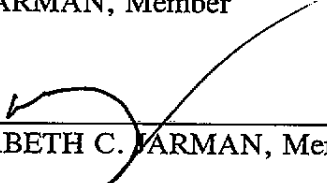

ARTICLE VI - ADMISSION OF NEW MEMBERS

No additional members shall be admitted to the company except with the unanimous written consent of all members (both managing and non-managing) of the Company and upon such terms and conditions as shall be determined by all the members as set forth in the regulations or operating agreement of the Company. A member may transfer his or her interest in the Company as set forth in the regulations of the Company, but the transferee shall have no right to participate in the management of the business and affairs of the Company (and unless said member is a voting member as referenced in Article V herein) or become a member unless all the other members of the Company other than the member proposed to dispose of his or her interest approve of the proposed transfer by unanimous written consent.

IN ACCORDANCE WITH §608.408(3), F.S., the execution of this document constitutes an affirmation under the penalties of perjury that the facts stated herein are true.
