Article V

The period of duration for the Limited Liability Company shall be perpetual.

Article VI

The purposes for which the Limited Liability Company is formed, and the business and objects to be carried on and promoted by it, are as follows:

- (a) The Limited Liability Company is organized and shall be operated exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations which qualify as exempt organization under §501(c)(3) of the Code, or the corresponding Section of any future United States Internal Revenue Law.
- (b) The Limited Liability Company is established to develop, acquire, own, maintain, operate, and/or manage skilled nursing homes, licensed assisted living units and related health care facilities, including retirement housing for elderly and infirmed persons; and to otherwise provide nursing and other health care services and facilities to those requiring such services.
- (c) The purpose for which the Limited Liability company is organized and the character of affairs which the Limited Liability Company intends actually to conduct itself are limited to its objectives, said objectives to be effected by the Limited Liability Company: (a) to purchase and develop an eldercare facility commonly known as Royal Oak Nursing Center, located in Dade City, Florida (the "Project"), and to operate the same or lease same to an organization with sufficient skill, ability and resources to ensure its continued success in providing health and nursing services to elderly persons in need; (b) to enable the financing of such acquisition and development of the Project with the proceeds from the issue of taxable bonds, and other financing sources, including FHA-insured mortgage financing; (c) to enter into, execute, perform, and carry out agreements or contracts of any kind necessary to, or in connection with, or incidental to, the accomplishment of the purposes of the Limited Liability Company, including, without limitation, notes, loan agreements, mortgages and such other agreements or contracts with the issuer or trustee of such bonds, or other parties, which may be desirable, or necessary to effect the acquisition and development of the Project, and the Regulations of the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development or the Secretary of the Treasury, relating to the use of bond proceeds, regulation or restriction of the owners of such bond financed property as to rents, sales, charges, capital structure, rate of return and method of operation; (d) to acquire any property, real or personal, in fee or under lease, or any rights therein or appurtenant thereto, necessary for the operation of the Project; and

- (e) to borrow money, and to issue evidence of indebtedness, and to secure the same by mortgage, deed of trust, pledge, or other lien, in furtherance of any or all of the objects of its business in connection with a Project. The Project to be acquired by the Limited Liability Company in furtherance of the above stated objectives shall be operated for the benefit of elderly persons in need of skilled nursing assistance as well as other daily care services, and consistent with the manner and purpose of providing such services and assistance as recognized as charitable by the Code.
- (d) The Limited Liability Company shall serve only such purposes and functions and shall engage only in such activities as are consistent with the purposes set forth in this Article V and with the purposes and objectives of its sole Member.
- (e) In any and all of its activities, the Limited Liability Company shall not pursue a policy with respect to applicants, members, staff, tenants or others related to such programs, that discriminates in any way on the basis of race, religion, color, sex, or national origin.

Article VII

In furtherance of its purposes as specified in Article VI above, the Limited Liability Company is empowered:

- (a) To do and perform all things whatsoever set out in Article VI above, and necessary or incidental to the accomplishments of said purposes.
- (b) Specifically and particularly, to enter into and perform under a Loan Agreement and/or Regulatory Agreement with appropriate governmental issuing authorities, setting out the terms of financing for the acquisition of the Project.
- (c) To acquire or receive from any individual, firm, association, corporation, trust, foundation or any governmental subdivision, unit or agency, by deed, gift, purchase, bequest, devise, appointment or otherwise, cash, securities and other property, tangible or intangible, real or personal, and to hold, administer, manage, invest, reinvest, and disburse the principal and income therefore solely for the purposes hereof.
- (d) To distribute property for such purposes in accordance with the terms of gifts, bequests, or devises to the Limited Liability Company not inconsistent with its purposes, as set forth in these Articles of Organization, or in accordance with determinations made by the Sole Member.
