DEAR POSTAL CUSTOMER

The enclosed was found loose in the mail, unsealed, or has been damaged in handling in the Postal Service (whichever is applicable to the enclosure).

When a Post Office is responsible for handling in excess of a million pieces of mail daily, it is imperative that mechanical methods be used to maintain production and ensure timely delivery of the mail. Damage, however, may occur if mail is not sealed properly or bulky contents are enclosed. The faulty envelope may jam our machinery, causing damage to the faulty envelope and other properly prepared mail as well. We are constantly striving to improve our processing methods to reduce the incidence of damage; however, due to the large volume of mail processed, incidents of damage will occasionally occur.

If the enclosed was damaged during handling, we extend our sincere apologies for any inconvenience you may have experienced.
