ARTICLE II
PURPOSES AND POWERS

In addition to the powers authorized by the laws of the State of Florida for limited liability companies, the general nature of the business or businesses to be transacted, and which the limited liability company is authorized to transact, shall be as follows:

1. To engage in any activity or business authorized under the Florida Statutes.
2. In general, to carry on any and all incidental business; to have and exercise all the powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida, and to do any and all things set forth in these Articles to the same extent as a natural person might or could do.
3. To purchase or otherwise acquire, undertake, carry on, improve, or develop, all or any of the business, good will, rights, assets, and liabilities of any person, firm, association, or corporation carrying on any kind of business of a similar nature to that which this limited liability company is authorized to carry on, pursuant to the provisions of these Articles; and to hold, utilize, and in any manner dispose of the rights and property so acquired.

4. To enter into and make all necessary contracts for its business with any person, entity, partnership, association, corporation, domestic or foreign, or of any domestic or foreign state, government, or governmental authority, or of any political or administrative subdivision, or department, and to perform and carry out, assign, cancel, or rescind any of such contracts.

5. To acquire in any manner, enjoy, utilize, hold, sell, assign, lease or dispose of, letters patent of the United States or any Foreign Country, patents, patent rights, licenses and privileges, inventions, improvements and processes, copyrights, trademarks and trade names or pending applications therefore, relating to or useful in connection with any business of the Corporation or any other business association in which the Corporation may have an interest as stockholder or otherwise.

6. To manufacture, purchase or otherwise acquire, and to own, sell, assign, and transfer or otherwise dispose of, and to invent, trade, deal in and with goods, wares, merchandise, and other personal property of every class and description whatsoever.

7. To act as financial, business or purchasing agent for domestic and foreign corporations, individuals, partnerships, associations or governmental units.

8. To have one or more offices, conduct its business and promote its objects within and without the State of Florida, in other states, the District of Columbia, the territories, possessions and dependencies of the United States and in foreign countries, without restrictions as to place or amount.

9. To borrow money and contract debts when necessary for the transaction of its business or for the exercise of its corporate rights, privileges and franchises, or for any other lawful purpose of its incorporation; to issue Bonds, Promissory Notes, Bills of Exchange, Debentures, and other obligations and evidences of indebtedness payable at a specified time or payable upon the happening of a specified event, whether secured by mortgage or unsecured, for money borrowed or in payment for property purchased or acquired, or any other lawful objects.

10. To hold, purchase and convey real and personal property and to mortgage or lease the same, regardless of said property's location.

11. To construct, reconstruct, alter and remove any building or buildings situated on any real estate owned in fee by the Corporation or by others, or held under lease of contract or otherwise by this Corporation or by any other person, association or corporation.

12. To acquire by purchase, subscription or otherwise, and to hold for investment, and to hold, own, sell, vote, and handle shares of stock in other corporations.

13. To exercise all or any of the limited liability company powers, and to carry out all or
