ARTICLE VIII ADMISSION OF NEW MEMBERS

Section 8.01 New Members Who Acquire Their Membership Interests From the Company
Admission by Members. Pursuant to Section 608.4232 of Florida Limited Liability Act (The "Act"), the Company may admit additional members only upon written consent by all the members. Any new member which is approved by the existing members as set forth herein shall become a member of the Company upon the payment of the contribution of the capital of the Company as established from time to time by the members and upon such member's agreements to comply with these Article of Organization, Regulations (as defined under the Act), and such other documents, statutes, rules, regulations or guidelines as the members may from time to time determine in their sole discretion.

Section 8.03 New Members Who Acquire Their Membership Interests From a Current Member.
No member may transfer the member's complete membership interest, or any rights to participate in the management of the Company, without the consent of a majority in interest of the other members. If the members give the required consent, the transferee is admitted to membership in the Company. If the members do not give the required consent, the transferee does not become a member and has no right to participate in the management of the company. No individual may participate in management of the Company who receives his interest by will, devise, inheritance, or any other testamentary gift or instrument as recognized by applicable law, without consent by members of a majority in interest of the Company.

ARTICLE IX DISSOLUTION

Section 9.01 Dissolution and Dissolution Avoidance Following the Dissociation of a Member

(a) Dissociation Defined. "Dissociation of a member" or "dissociation" occurs when the Company has notice or knowledge of an event that has terminated a member's continued membership in the Company.

(b) Means of Avoiding Dissolution Following Member Dissociation. To avoid dissolution under this Section 9.01(b), the Company must have at least one remaining member.

In addition to any means for avoiding dissolution provided by statute, dissolution is avoided upon the dissociation of a member if, within ninety (90) days of the dissociation, consent to avoid dissolution is obtained from a majority in interest of the remaining members.
