ARTICLE VII – ADMISSION OF NEW MEMBERS

Except as set forth in the operating agreement, no additional members shall be admitted to the company except with the unanimous written consent of all the members of the company and on the terms and conditions as shall be determined by all the members. A member may transfer his or her interest in the company as set forth in the operating agreement of the company, but the transferee shall have no right to participate in the management of the business and affairs of the company or become a member unless all of the members of the company other than the member proposing to dispose of his or her interest approve of the proposed transfer by written consent.

ARTICLE VIII – MEMBERS' RIGHT TO CONTINUE BUSINESS

The company shall be dissolved on the death, bankruptcy, or dissolution of a member or manager, or on the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a member in the company, unless the business of the company is continued by unanimous vote of the remaining members.

ARTICLE IX -- MANAGEMENT

The company shall be managed by the members in accordance with the operating agreement adopted by the members for the management of the business and affairs of the company. The operating agreement may contain any provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of the company not inconsistent with law or these articles of organization.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned organizers have made and subscribed these articles of organization at Altamonte Springs, Florida, on March __, 2002.
