CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS

The capital contributions of a member of the Company may be in cash, property or services rendered, or a promissory note or other obligation to contribute cash or property or to perform services. A promise by a member to contribute to the capital of the Company shall not be enforceable unless it is set out in writing and signed by the member. The obligation of a member of the Company to make a contribution may be compromised only by the written consent of all other members of the Company. The Regulations of the Company may provide that the interest of any member of the Company who fails to make any contribution the member is obligated to make shall be subject to specified penalties for, or specified consequences of, such failure.

ARTICLE VII

CONTINUATION OF BUSINESS

The members of the Company shall have the right to continue the business of the Company on the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy or dissolution of any member or the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a member in the Company upon the written consent of a majority in interest of remaining members. The regulations of the Company may provide for the automatic transfer to another member of a member's interest in the Company upon the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy or dissolution of such member or the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of such member in the Company; and, upon such transfer, the transferee of such member's interest in the Company may constitute a member for purposes of determining the interest of the members of the Company.

ARTICLE VIII

ADMISSION OF NEW MEMBERS

No additional members shall be admitted to the Company except with the unanimous written consent of all the members of the Company and upon such terms and conditions as shall be determined by all the members and set forth in the regulations of the Company. A member may transfer his, her or its interest in the Company as set forth in the regulations of the Company, but the transferee shall have no right to participate in the management of the business and affairs of the Company or become a member unless all the other members of the Company other than the member proposing to dispose of his, her or its interest approve of the proposed transfer by unanimous written consent.
