ARTICLE VI – ADMISSION OF NEW MEMBERS

No additional members shall be admitted to the company except with the unanimous consent of all the members of the company and on such terms and conditions as shall be determined by all of the members. A member may transfer his or her interest in the company as set forth in the regulations of the company, but the transferee shall have no right to participate in the management of the business and affairs of the company or become a member unless all the other members of the company other than the member proposing to dispose of his or her interest approve of the transfer by unanimous written consent.

ARTICLE VII – TERMINATION OF EXISTENCE

The company shall be dissolved on the death, bankruptcy, or dissolution of a member or manager, or on the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a member in the company, unless the business of the company is continued by the consent of all the remaining members, provided there are at least two remaining members.

ARTICLE VIII – MANAGEMENT

The company shall be managed by a manager or managers in accordance with regulations adopted by the members for the management of the business affairs of the company. These regulations may contain any provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of the company not inconsistent with law or these articles of organization. The initial managers of the company are James, R. Cool, Tammy L. DeBracco, Charles E. Collins, and Michael G. Gross.

ARTICLE IX – INDEMNIFICATION AND LIABILITY

The company may, as determined by the company's manages, indemnify and advance expenses to a Member, Manager, employee or agent of the company in connection with any proceeding, to the extent permitted by and in accordance with applicable laws and statutes and the regulations of the company.
