ARTICLE II

GENERAL NATURE OF BUSINESS

The general nature of the business and the objects and purposes proposed to be transacted, promoted and carried on are to do any and all things hereinafter mentioned as fully and to the same extent as natural persons might or could do, namely:

(A) To engage in the business of a clearing house for medical claims for insurance companies, doctors, hospitals and other care providers on any and all negotiated basis.

(B) For itself or as agent or correspondent for others, to deal in stocks, bonds, commercial paper, mortgages, and other securities, to manage estates and properties, including the buying, selling, leasing, improving and dealing in lands and tenements, and the construction and selling of restaurants and buildings. The limited liability company may take, acquire and hold stock in any other corporation or limited liability company, as well as to purchase, acquire, hold, improve, sell, convey, assign, release, mortgage, encumber, lease, hire and deal in and with real and personal property of every name and nature, including stocks and securities of other corporations or limited liability companies, and to loan money and take securities for the payment of all sums due the limited liability company, and to sell, assign and release such securities or membership interest.

(C) To build upon or in any other manner improve real estate in which this limited liability company has any interest whatsoever.

(D) To lend money secured by mortgage or other security or without security, for itself or on a commission basis for others; to borrow money for the purpose of investment or for any of the purposes of this limited liability company, and to issue bond, debentures, notes or other obligations therefor, and to secure the same by pledge or mortgage of the whole or any part of the real estate or personal property of this limited liability company, or to issue bond, debenture stocks, notes or other obligations without any such security; to accept and execute any and all agencies with respect to investment of money, the sale of real and/or personal property, and the collection and receipts of the proceeds thereof and/or the income therefrom; to buy and sell negotiable paper; to execute deeds, mortgages, lot contracts, bonds for title, releases and such other instruments as may be necessary for the carrying on of the business above designated.

(E) To buy, sell, trade or deal in any kind of goods, wares and merchandise.

(F) To organize or cause to be organized under the laws of the State of Florida or of any other state, district, territory, province or government, a limited liability company for the purpose of accomplishing any of or all of the objects for which this corporation is organized, and to dissolve, wind up, liquidate, merge or consolidate any such organization, or to cause the same to be dissolved, wound up, liquidated, merged or consolidated.

(G) No contract or other transaction entered into by the limited liability company shall be affected by the fact that any member of the limited liability company in any way is interested in or connected with any party to such contract or transaction, or himself is a party to such contract or transaction, provided said contract or transaction shall be approved by a majority of the members present at the meeting of the members.

(H) To carry on any other lawful business whatsoever which may seem to the limited liability company capable of being carried on in connection with the above, or calculated directly or indirectly to promote the interests of the limited liability company, or
