Dear Brenda Tadlock:

On July 15th I electronically filed the annual report for the above referenced L.L.C. I had not received a prior notice, so I checked the appropriate box. At the time I did not notice that this failed to register and that I had been charged the $400 penalty. It wasn't until checks began to bounce recently that I discovered what had happened.

I respectfully request a refund of this money.

The sole business of this L.L.C. is the ownership of a 700 sq ft condo which it rents. The real estate business being where it is, the rental income doesn't cover expenses. Therefore, the $400 is very meaningful.

Thank you for your time and attention.

Sincerely,

Diane L. Bengivengo – Trustee
