Company. The Company shall indemnify any person who is or was a party, or who is threatened, pending, or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, including all appeals, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a Member, Managing Member or employee of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, trustee, officer or employee of another limited liability company, corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any and all expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, decrees, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement, which were actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in, or at least not opposed to, the best interests of the Company, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he or she had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement conviction, or plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in, or at least not opposed to, the best interests of the Company.

Any officer, agent, member, member manager or employee of the Company shall remain personally liable and accountable only for negligent or wrongful acts or misconduct committed by that person, or by any person under that person's direct supervision and control, while rendering professional services pursuant to Florida Statutes, Section 621.07.

ARTICLE X

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY OF MEMBERS

The personal liability of the Members to the Company and other Members shall be limited to the maximum extent allowed by Florida law and there shall be no Member who is personally liable for the debts of, or claims against, the Company.

ARTICLE XI

TRANSFERABILITY OF INTEREST

- (1) No person shall be admitted as a Member of a limited liability company organized under this act, unless such person is a professional corporation, a professional limited liability company, or an individual, each of which must be duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to render the same specific professional services as those for which the limited liability company is organized.
- (2) No Member of a limited liability company organized under this act shall enter into any type of agreement vesting another person with the authority to exercise any of that Member's voting power in the limited liability company.
- (3) No Member of the Company may transfer or assign its interest in the Company without the prior written consent of all of the other Members. Any attempt to transfer or assign a Member's interest, without such a written consent, shall not entitle the transferee to participate in the management of the business and affairs of the Company or to become a Member. The transferee shall be only entitled to receive the share of profits or other compensation by way of income and the return of contributions to which the Member otherwise would be entitled.

ARTICLE XII

POWER TO AMEND

The power to adopt, alter, amend or repeal the Articles of Organization of the Company shall be vested solely in the Members of the Company and shall be by a unanimous vote of approval of
