We have received your document for AZTEC MEDICAL GROUP PARTNERS, LLC and your check(s) totaling $160.00. However, the enclosed document has not been filed and is being returned for the following correction(s):

The articles of organization are referring to the entity as a Limited Liability Corporation. Please change the articles to read Limited Liability Company.

Limited Liability Companies do not have incorporators. Please remove Article VII.

Limited Liability Companies are not corporations. Limited Liability Companies are unique business entities with special characteristics and attributes formed under Chapter 608, Florida Statutes. Corporations, on the other hand, are formed under Chapter 607, Florida Statutes, and possess other distinctive traits and characteristics. Consequently, limited liability company documents cannot contain any references/terms which may implicate the entity is a corporation. Please delete any references to the term "corporation" or the like from your document.

Chapter 608, Florida Statutes, does not allow limited liability companies to issue shares or stock. Consequently, limited liability company documents cannot contain any references/terms which may implicate otherwise. Please delete any references to terms such as "shares," "stock," "stockholders," "shareholders" or the like from your document.

Section 608.407, Florida Statutes, requires the document(s) to be signed by a member or by the authorized representative of a member.

Please return your document, along with a copy of this letter, within 60 days or your filing will be considered abandoned.

If you have any questions concerning the filing of your document, please call (850) 245-6025.

Article IV

The LLC is to be managed by one or more managers and is, therefore, a manager – managed company.

Article V

The nature of the business or purposes to be conducted or promoted is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which companies may be organized under the Limited Liability Company Law of Florida.

Article VI

The Limited Liability Company is to have perpetual existence.

Article VII

Subject to the provisions of the laws of the State of Florida, the following provisions are adopted for the management of the business and for the conduct of the affairs of the LLC, and for defining, limiting and regulating the powers of the LLC, the managers and the members:

(a) The books of the LLC may be kept outside of the State of Florida at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the Managers.

(b) The business of the LLC shall be managed by its Managers; and the Managers shall have power to exercise all the powers of the LLC, including (but without limiting the generality hereof) the power to create mortgages upon the whole or any part of the property of the LLC, real or personal, without any action of or by the stockholders, except as otherwise provided by statute or by the Bylaws.

(c) An increase in the number of Managers shall be deemed to create a vacancy or vacancies in the Board of Managers, to be filled in the manner provided in the Bylaws. Any Manager or any officer elected or appointed by the Members or by the Board of Managers may be removed at any time, in such manner as shall be provided in the Bylaws.

(d) The Board of Managers shall have power to make and alter Bylaws, subject to such restrictions upon the exercise of such power as may be imposed by the Members in any bylaws adopted by them from time to time.

(e) The Board of Managers shall have the power, in its discretion, to fix, determine and vary, from time to time, the amount to be retained as surplus and the amount or amounts to be set apart out of any of the funds of the LLC available for dividends as working capital or a reserve or reserves for any proper purpose, and to abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

(f) The Board of Managers shall have the power, in its discretion, from time to time, to determine whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions and regulations the books and accounts of the LLC, or any of them, other than the membership ledger, shall be open to the inspection of members; and no member shall have any right to inspect any account or book or document of the LLC, except as conferred by law or authorized by resolution of the directors or of the members.

(g) Upon any sale, exchange or other disposal of the property and/or assets of the LLC, payment therefor may be made either to the LLC or directly to the members in proportion to their interests, as the Board of Managers may determine.

(h) In case the LLC shall enter into any contract or transact any business with one or more of its managers or members, or with any firm of which any manager or member is a member, or with any company or association of which any manager or member is a stockholder, director or officer, such contract or transaction shall not be invalidated or in any way affected by the fact that such manager or member has or may have an interest therein which is or might be adverse to the interests of the LLC, even though the vote of such manager or member might have been necessary to obligate the LLC upon such contract or transaction; provided, that the fact of such interest shall have been disclosed to the other managers and members of the LLC, as the case may be, acting upon or with reference to such contract or transaction.

(i) The LLC reserves the right to amend, alter, change, add to or repeal any provision contained in this Articles of Organization in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute; and all rights herein conferred are granted subject to this reservation.

I, THE UNDERSIGNED, the registered agent hereinbefore named, for the purpose of forming a company pursuant to the Limited Liability Company Law of the State of Florida, do make this Articles or
