- a. The retirement, death, insanity, dissolution or withdrawal of all of the Managing Members;
- b. The filing of an involuntary Petition in bankruptcy against all of the Managing Members if such petitions are not dismissed within ninety (90) days of the date of filing;
- c. The expiration of the fixed term of the Company;
- d. The disposition of all Company properties;

In the event of a dissolution caused by an occurrence specified in (a) or (b) above against all of the Managing Members, if counsel (which is acceptable to a majority in interest of the Members) shall have delivered to the Company an opinion, in substance satisfactory to such Members, that neither the grant nor the exercise of the powers of the Members by consenting to continue the Company and elect a new Managing Member will adversely affect (i) the limited liability status of a Member, or (ii) the tax status of the Company, then upon an affirmative vote of the majority in interest of Members such business shall be continued and a new

- k. Except for prior amendment to this section, no act by the Company or its members can avoid that dissolution.

II. Dissolution and Dissolution Avoidance Following the Dissociation of a Member.

- a. Dissociation Defined. "Dissociation of a member" or "dissociation" occurs when the Company has notice or knowledge of an event that has terminated a member's continued membership in the Company.

- b. Means of Avoiding Dissolution Following Member Dissociation.

(i) To avoid dissolution under this Section VII-II(b), the Company must have at least two remaining members. If a dissociation leaves the Company with only one remaining member, that member may admit an additional member.

(ii) In addition to any means for avoiding a dissolution provided by statute, dissolution is avoided upon the dissociation of a member if, within ninety (90) days of the dissociation, consent to avoid dissolution is obtained from [all] [a majority in interest] [specified percentage] of the remaining members. The
