ARTICLE V

This company is organized for the purpose of conducting any and all lawful business permitted under the laws of the United States and of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE VI

All company power shall be exercised by, or under the authority of, and the business affairs of the company shall be managed under the direction of the members of the company. This Article may be amended from time to time in the regulations of the company by a unanimous vote of its members.

ARTICLE VII

Members shall have the right to admit new members by unanimous consent only. Contributions required of new members shall be determined as of the time of admission to the company. A member's interest in the company may not be sold or otherwise transferred except upon the unanimous written consent of members.

ARTICLE VIII

The Company shall dissolve upon the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy, or dissolution of a member, or the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a member in the company; provided, however, that the Company may continue to exist and conduct its business upon the unanimous consent of the remaining members.

ARTICLE IX

Power to adopt, alter, amend or repeal the regulations of the company shall be vested in the members adopted by the members may be repealed or altered, new regulations may be adopted, and the members may prescribe in any regulations made by them that such regulations may not be altered, amended or repealed by any manager. The regulations shall govern and address items relating to the day to day operation of the company's business and shall address, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, such items as return of capital and distribution of profits and losses as between the members.

In accordance with §608.403(3), Florida Statutes, the execution of this document constitutes an affirmation under the penalties of perjury that the facts stated herein are true.

The undersigned has executed these Articles of Organization this 6th day of February, 2003.

James A. Staack, as authorized representative of Monroe's Prestige Group, Inc.
