ARTICLE XI
TRANSFERABILITY OF INTEREST

No Member of the Company may transfer or assign its interest in the Company without the prior written consent of all of the other Members. Any attempt to transfer or assign a Member's interest, without such a written consent, shall not entitle the transferee to participate in the management of the business and affairs of the Company or to become a Member. The transferee shall be only entitled to receive the share of profits or other compensation by way of income and the return of contributions to which the Member otherwise would be entitled.

ARTICLE XII
POWER TO AMEND

The power to adopt, alter, amend or repeal the Articles of Organization of the Company shall be vested solely in the Members of the Company and shall be by a unanimous vote of approval of the Members.

ARTICLE XIII
LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY REGULATIONS

The power to adopt, alter, amend, or repeal the regulations of the limited liability company shall be vested in the Members of the Company as in the Operating Agreement. The Operating Agreement adopted by the Members may be repealed or altered; the Members may adopt a new or modify the existing Operating Agreement; and the Members may prescribe any modifications to the Operating Agreement made by them that such contents of the Operating Agreement may not be altered, amended, or repealed by the Member manager or managers. The Operating Agreement may contain any provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of the limited liability company not inconsistent with law or the Articles of Organization.
