In the event of the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy or dissolution of a Member or upon the occurrence of any other event of dissolution as the members may specify by operating agreement, which terminates the continued membership of a Member in the Company, the Company shall be dissolved unless within thirty (30) days after such event, the remaining Members agree in writing to continue the business of the Company.

ARTICLE IX
INDEMNIFICATION

The Company shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, be entitled to indemnify any Member for any liability incurred in connection with any action, if such Member acted in good faith and in a manner it reasonably believed to be in furtherance of, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Company. The Company shall indemnify any person who is or was a party, or who is threatened, pending, or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, including all appeals, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a Member, managing Member or employee of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, trustee, officer or employee of another limited liability company, corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any and all expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, decrees, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement, which were actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in, or at least not opposed to, the best interests of the Company, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he or she had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement conviction, or plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in, or at least not opposed to, the best interests of the Company.

ARTICLE X
LIMITATION OF LIABILITY OF MEMBERS

The personal liability of the Members to the Company and other Members shall be limited to the maximum extent allowed by Florida law and there shall be no Member who is personally liable for the debts of, or claims against, the Company.
