ARTICLE V

The Company shall adopt an operating agreement that conforms to these Articles by unanimous consent of the initial members ("Operating Agreement"). The Operating Agreement shall always be construed to conform to these Articles or, if any paragraph or section of the Operating Agreement cannot be reasonably construed to conform to these Articles, each offensive paragraph and/or section of the Operating Agreement shall be stricken as if it had never been adopted into the Operating Agreement so that the Operating Agreement conforms to these Articles. The Operating Agreement shall otherwise be amendable and/or address matters not specifically precluded by these Articles. ## ARTICLE VI

The Company shall act under the direction of the members (each a "Member"), always pursuant to these Articles and the Operating Agreement.

ARTICLE VII

"Fair Market Value" means the price a particular property item will bring when offered for sale by a willing seller to a willing buyer in an arm's length transaction, neither being obliged to buy or sell.

If adopted by the Members, the membership interests may be further limited by encumbrances arising from the Member shortfall provisions of the Operating Agreement.

The membership interests shall have no other limitations other than those specifically mandated by the Florida Limited Liability Company Act or as specified in these Articles or the Operating Agreement.

"Net Cash Flow" means the lesser of (i) the net change of the Company's cash balances during the prior taxable year calculated in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles; and (ii) the Company's cash balances at the end of the year, less reasonable reserves for working capital and projected cash requirements, including projected expenses and contingent liabilities, but not including capital investments and reinvestments that are not necessary to the Company as a going concern, all calculated in
