ARTICLE VI
Management of the Company

The Company shall be managed by its members.

ARTICLE VII
Continuation of the Company

The death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy or dissolution of a member or the occurrence of any other event which terminates the continued membership of a member in the Company (an "Event") shall not cause the Company to be dissolved; provided that if, following the occurrence of such Event, no member shall remain, then dissolution shall be deemed to occur upon the date of the Event unless, within the succeeding six month period, any personal or other legal representative of such last member agrees in writing that (a) the Company shall be continued without dissolution, and (b) such representative or any nominee or designee thereof shall be admitted to the Company as a member thereof, effective as of the occurrence of the Event. Under that latter circumstance, the Company shall continue in effect and shall not be deemed dissolved.

ARTICLE VIII
Operating Agreement

The power to adopt, alter, amend or repeal an Operating Agreement, whose purpose shall be to regulate the Company's affairs, the conduct of its business activities, and to govern the relations between or among multiple members shall be vested in the Company's members.

ARTICLE IX
Indemnification

The Company shall have the power, but not the absolute obligation, to indemnify any member, manager, agent or other person having a relationship with the Company, or his, her or its personal representatives, devisees, heirs, successors or assigns, in the manner and to the extent contemplated by §608.4229, Florida Statutes, or any successor thereto.
