To whom it may concern:

Please find the enclosed copy of my filing of Dissolution in April of 2007. I received a letter from someone in your department in early May concerning another Article of Dissolution that I filed for HIS Red, LLC where I had failed to enclose the check for the action to be accomplished. I promptly sent a check out and thought that this had been a one time oversight. Perhaps I failed to send a check with this one as well, because I cannot find a check number in my checkbook associated with this action. Could you please check and see if you received the paperwork without a check? Or whether you never received anything at all? I have enclosed a second copy that was printed on the 19th of April for my records. I have signed and enclosed a check for 30.00 as well in case this was the problem. Please call with any additional questions. I will be on summer vacation until July 23rd, but should be able to check my messages occasionally if you wish to leave a message.

Thank you,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Malcolm G Quincy". The signature is stylized with a large, looped "M" and a long, sweeping tail that extends to the right.
