Dear Ms. Padlock

Document # L03000032423

I recently spoke to one of your Supervisors asking why I was charged an additional $100.00 fee for reinstatement of my Corporation. When I received the Notice of Dissolution or Revocation, I immediately checked my records to see if I had received a prior notice. I had not. I did receive last years notice to my same existing address and the fee was $50.00.

I then went on-line and renewed my 2005 Annual report using my Debit Card to effect payment, at the time I did not realize that I was being affixed a penalty of $100.00 Your Supervisor indicated that I should have checked a box on the form that stated that I had not received the annual notice of renewal. I must have missed this information and did not put a check in the box. Nonetheless I did not get a notice, however your supervisor informed me that unless I checked the box he could not affect a refund without your permission and that I needed to write to you asking for the refund.

I would appreciate your sending me the excess amount of $100.00 so I am not penalized for a simple oversight.

Your cooperation and considerations is most appreciated.

Thank you!

Very truly yours
