ARTICLE VII

Members may assign or transfer the economic rights associated with their interest, but no other right of membership may be transferred without the consent of all other members. No assignee of any member's interest shall become a member without consent of all the other members, and the assignee's rights are limited solely to a creditor's remedies of a charging order against the assignor member's economic interest.

ARTICLE VIII

Distributions, profits and losses of the company are allocated proportionately with the members respective contributions.

ARTICLE IX

The members may adopt regulations to govern the affairs of the Company by unanimous consent. The manager or management committee shall have no power to adopt, alter, amend or repeal regulations adopted by the members, other than emergency regulations in the event of a catastrophic event, as provided by Florida Statutes 608.423.

ARTICLE X

The Company's existence shall be the date these Articles are signed by the members, if the Articles are filed with the Florida Department of State within five (5) days of such date, and if not, then on the date these Articles are filed.

Dated September 19th, 2003.
