Continuity L.L.C
(A Florida Limited Liability Company)

1. To the fullest extent permitted by the Florida General Limited Liability Company Law as the same exists or as may hereafter be amended, a member of the Limited Liability Company shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its members for monetary damages for a breach of fiduciary duty as a member.
2. The Limited Liability Company may indemnify to the fullest extent permitted by law any person made or threatened to be made a party to an action or proceeding, whether criminal, civil, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he, his testator or intestate is or was a member, officer or employee of the Limited Liability Company or any predecessor of the Limited Liability Company or serves or served at any other enterprise as a member, director, officer or employee at the request of the Limited Liability Company or any predecessor to the Limited Liability Company.

3. Neither any amendment nor repeal of this Article VI, nor the adoption of any provision of this Limited Liability Company's Certificate of Organization inconsistent with this Article VI, shall eliminate or reduce the effect of this Article V, in respect of any matter occurring, or any action or proceeding accruing or arising or that, but for this Article VI, would accrue or arise, prior to such amendment, repeal or adoption of an inconsistent provision

Article VII

Meetings of members may be held within or without the State of Florida, as the Bylaws may provide. The books of the Limited Liability Company may be kept (subject to any provision contained in the statutes) outside of the State of Florida at such place or places as may be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors or in the Bylaws of the Corporation.
