ARTICLE VI— Admission of Additional Members:

Except as set forth in the Operating Agreement, no additional members shall be admitted to the company except with the unanimous written consent of all the members of the company and on such terms and conditions as shall be determined by all the members. A member may transfer his or her interest in the company as set forth in the Operating Agreement of the company, but the transferee shall have no right to participate in the management of the business and affairs of the company or become a member unless all the members of the company other than the member proposing to dispose of his or her interest approve of the proposed transfer by written consent.

ARTICLE VII — Members' Rights to Continue Business:

The company shall be dissolved on the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy, or dissolution of a member or the occurrence of any other event which terminates the continued membership of a member in the limited liability company, unless the business of the company is continued by majority vote of all remaining members.

ARTICLE VIII — Limitation on Agency Authority of Members

Pursuant to Section 608.4235 of the Florida Limited Liability Company Act, no member of the Company shall be an agent of the Company solely by virtue of being a member, and no member shall have authority to incur debt or contractual liability on behalf of the Company solely by virtue of being a member.

ARTICLE IX — Amendment of Articles

This limited liability company reserves the right to amend or repeal any provisions contained in these Articles of Organization, or any amendment hereto, and any right conferred upon members is subject to this reservation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have signed these Articles of Organization and acknowledged them to be my act this 13th day of October, 2003.
