Article IV — Management:

The Limited Liability Company is to be managed by the members and is, therefore, a member-managed company.

Article V — Duration

The company shall commence its existence on the date these articles of organization are filed by the Florida Department of State or on another effective date if specified. The company's existence shall be perpetual, unless the company is dissolved earlier as provided in these articles of organization or in the regulations.

Article VI— Admission of New Members

Except as set forth in the regulations, no additional members shall be admitted to the company except with the unanimous written consent of all the members of the company and on the terms and conditions as shall be determined by all the members. A member may transfer his or her interest in the company as set forth in the regulations of the company, but the transferee shall have no right to participate in the management of the business and affairs of the company or become a member unless all of the members of the company other than the member proposing to dispose of his or her interest approve the proposed transfer by written consent.

Article VII— Member's Right to Continue Business

The company shall be dissolved on the death, bankruptcy, or dissolution of a member or manager, or on the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a member in the company, unless the business of the company is continued by a majority vote of the remaining members.

Article VIII – Limitation on Agency Authority of Members

Pursuant to section 608.4235 of the Florida Limited Company Act, no member of the Company shall be an agent of the Company solely by virtue of being a member.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have signed these Articles of Organization as an authorized representative of a member and acknowledged them to be my act this 14TH day of October, 2003.

(In accordance with section 608.408(3), Florida Statutes, the execution of this statement constitutes an affirmation under the penalties of perjury that the facts stated herein are true.)
