ARTICLES OF ORGANIZATION FOR A
FLORIDA PROFESSIONAL LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY

The undersigned Subscriber to the herein styled Articles of Organization, a natural person competent to contract, and duly licensed by the State of Florida to practice as a physician, hereby makes, subscribes, acknowledges and files with the Secretary of State of the State of Florida these Articles of Organization, for the purpose of forming a professional limited liability company for pecuniary profit pursuant to section 621.051 Florida Statutes, for the sole and specific purpose of rendering the same and specific professional service.

ARTICLE I
Name

The name of this professional Limited Liability Company is:

ROBERT P. ALBERGO, M.D., P.L.

ARTICLE II
Business

This professional Limited Liability Company shall engage in every phase and aspect of the general practice of medicine, and rendering the same professional services to the public that a physician duly licensed under the laws of the State of Florida, is authorized to render, but such professional services shall be rendered only through officers, employees, and agents who are duly licensed under the laws of the State of Florida to practice medicine herein, and for the purposes of transacting any or all lawful business related thereto.

ARTICLE III

ARTICLE V
Management

The professional Limited Liability Company shall be managed by its Member whose name, mailing address and street address is:

Robert P. Albergo, M.D.
4132 Woodland Parkway
Palm Harbor, Florida 34685

ARTICLE VI
Restrictions on Transfers

No Member may sell, assign, transfer, encumber, or otherwise dispose of any interest in the professional Limited Liability Company without first offering to sell such interest to the other Members.

ARTICLE VII
Members Rights to Continue Business

The death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy, dissolution of a Member or the occurrence of any other event which terminates the continued membership of a Member in the professional Limited Liability Company, whether voluntary or involuntary, shall not terminate the professional Limited Liability Company which shall continue so long as there is at least one remaining Member.

ARTICLE VIII
Professional Relationship

Nothing contained in these Articles of Organization shall be interpreted to abolish, repeal, modify, restrict, or limit the law now in effect in this state applicable to the professional relationship and liabilities between the person furnishing the professional services and the person receiving such professional service and to the standards for professional conduct; provided, however, that any officer, agent, member, manager or employee of a limited liability company organized hereunder shall be personally liable and accountable only for negligent or wrongful acts or misconduct committed by that person, or by any person under that person's direct supervision and control, while rendering professional service on behalf of the limited liability company to the person for whom such professional services were being rendered; and provided further that the personal liability of members of a limited liability company organized hereunder, in their capacity as members of such limited liability company, shall be no greater in any aspect than that of a member-employee of a limited liability company organized under Chapter 608 Florida Statutes. The limited liability company shall be liable up to the full value of its property for any negligent or wrongful acts or misconduct committed by any of its officers, agents, member, managers, or employees while they are engaged on behalf of the limited liability company in the rendering of professional services.
