Highlands County's Enhanced 911 System improves emergency response by Police, Fire and Ambulance. Effective August 1st 2004, the PHYSICAL SITE ADDRESS at which you live or own property will be changed as noted above. We recommend that you post this new number with 4" or 6" numbers for Residential or Commercial respectively, in a contrasting color on the assigned dwelling as soon as possible. Failure to display it could result in delays in mail delivery and response by emergency vehicles. Highlands County will notify the Post Office, Police, Utility Companies, Sprint Telephone Company, Fire and Ambulance Service that government records pertaining to the physical site address for your property has been changed. All you need to change is your mailing address on your personal mail and the Property Appraiser see attached form

The Post Office will deliver mail to the old addresses for ONE YEAR from the effective date giving you time to notify all agencies.

If you have any questions please feel free to give us a call at (863) 402-6715.

Effective Date of Change August 1st 2004
