CLIENT'S ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF ADVICE

The undersigned Client acknowledges that David Montgomery (Attorney), in connection with the organization of a limited liability company, among other matters, has advised of the following:

- 1 Attorney has been retained to provide the minimum services necessary for the establishment of a limited liability company and minimum expense for attorneys fees and costs.
- 2 Attorney makes, and has made, no representation as to any particular use or effect of use of the Limited Liability Company format for the purposes of the Client.
- 3 Attorney makes, and has made, no representation as to the use or effect of use of the Limited Liability Company format for the workers compensation exemption qualification purposes or other workers compensation purposes.
- 4 Attorney has advised Client that to obtain the benefit of use of the Limited Liability Company format, the Client will have a continuing responsibility to learn of, remain aware of, observe and comply with the continuing limitations, duties and responsibilities of capital funding, operation, reporting, filing and other aspects of proper operation of a limited liability company, including but not limited to any insurance requirement.
- 5 Attorney has advised Client that to authorize further and additional assistance of Attorney, at additional charges, for further information and assistance regarding observation and compliance with the continuing limitations, duties and responsibilities of capital funding, operation, reporting, filing and other aspects of proper operation of a limited liability company, including but not limited to any insurance requirement.
- 6 Attorney makes, and has made, no representation as to the use or effect of use of the Limited Liability Company format for the income or other taxation purposes.
- 7 Attorney has advised Client that to obtain the assistance of a qualified tax professional for any income or other tax advise and assistance desired by client.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal on November 17, 2003.
