ARTICLE IV

Duration

Except as provided below, this limited liability company shall exist in perpetuity, or until dissolved in a manner provided by law, or as provided in the regulations adopted by the members, or by separate agreement among the members.

The right, if given, of the remaining members of the limited liability company to continue the business on the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy, or dissolution of a member or the occurrence of any other event which terminates the continued membership of a member in the limited liability company shall be as set forth by the regulations and/or separate agreement among the members.

ARTICLE V

Membership

New members of this limited liability company may only be admitted upon unanimous consent of all members. Contributions required of new members shall be determined as of the time of admission to this limited liability company.

A member's interest in this limited liability company may not be sold, assigned, transferred, or conveyed without unanimous written consent of all members, and an assignee of an interest in this limited liability company may become a member only upon consent of all existing members.

ARTICLE VI

Profits and Losses

A. Profits. After payment of the expenses of this limited liability company, each member shall be entitled to a distributive share of the profits of this limited liability company in accordance with an agreed upon formula or, in the absence of such formula, in proportion to each member's then outstanding contributed and not returned capital. The distributive share of the profits shall be determined and paid to the members by December 31st of each year.

B. Losses. Any losses which occur in the operation of this limited liability company shall be paid from the profits and capital of this limited liability company or, if the profits and capital are not sufficient to pay for these losses, by the members in proportion to their capital accounts.

ARTICLE VII
