ARTICLE 7

LOANS AND ADVANCES

7.1 Loans and Advances Not Capital Contributions. If a Member loans or advances funds to the Company, other than as a Capital Contribution pursuant to these Articles, the amount of such loan or advance shall not be deemed a Capital Contribution unless the Members unanimously agree otherwise. The amount of any such loan or advance shall be a debt due from the Company to such Member and, except as otherwise expressly provided in Section 7.2 or elsewhere in these Articles or as agreed at the time such funds are loaned or advanced, shall be repaid to such Member upon demand with such interest at a rate per annum which is two percentage points above the prime commercial lending rate per annum announced by CHASE MANHATTAN BANK at its principal office in New York, New York, from time to time, each change in such announced rate to be effective for purposes of this Agreement on the day on which such change is effective at said bank, or at the highest rate permitted by law, whichever is lower.

ARTICLE 8

PROFITS, LOSSES, AND DISTRIBUTIONS

8.1 Interim Distributions of Net Profit. The Company shall distribute fifty percent (50%) of its Net Profit to the Members on a monthly basis or at such times as the Members may determine. Such distributions shall be made to the Members in proportion to their respective Percentages in the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no distribution may be made if after the distribution the Company would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business, or the Company's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities.

8.2 Annual Allocation of Profit or Loss. After giving effect to the special allocations set forth in Section 8.3, the Profit or Loss of the Company for any fiscal year shall be allocated to the Members in proportion to their Percentages in the Company. Profit and Loss for each fiscal year shall be determined on the basis of the Company's audited financial statements prepared in accordance with general accepted accounting principles. Final distributions shall not exceed fifty percent (50%) of the Net Profit after taking into account all interim distributions throughout the year unless Members agree otherwise.

8.3 Regulatory Allocations.

8.3.1 Qualified Income Offset. No Member shall be allocated losses or deductions if the allocation causes the Member to have an Adjusted Capital Account Deficit. If a Member receives (1) an allocation of Loss or deduction (or item thereof) or (2) any distribution, which causes the Member to have an Adjusted Capital Account Deficit at the end of any taxable year, then all items of income and gain of the Company (consisting of a pro rata portion of each item of Company income, including gross income and gain) for that taxable year shall be allocated to that Member, before any other allocation is made of Company items for that taxable year, in the amount and in proportions required to eliminate the excess as quickly as possible. This Section 8.3.1 is intended to comply with, and shall be interpreted consistently with, the "qualified income offset" provisions of the I.R.S. Regulations promulgated under Code Section 704(b).

8.3.2 Minimum Gain Chargeback. Except as set forth in I.R.S. Regulation Sections 1.704-2(f)(2), (3) and (4), if, during any taxable year, there is a net decrease in Minimum Gain, each Member, prior to any other allocation pursuant to this Article IV, shall be specially allocated items of gross income and gain for such taxable year (and, if necessary, subsequent taxable years) in an amount equal to that Member's share of the net decrease of Minimum Gain, computed in accordance with I.R.S. Regulation Section 1.704-2(g). Allocations of gross income and gain pursuant to this Section 4.3.2 shall be made first from gain recognized from the disposition of Company assets subject to nonrecourse liabilities (within the meaning of the I.R.S. Regulations promulgated under Code Section 752), to the extent of the Minimum Gain attributable to those assets, and thereafter, from a pro rata portion of the Company's other items of income and gain for the taxable year. It is the intent of the parties hereto that any allocation pursuant to this Section 8.3.2 shall constitute a "minimum gain chargeback" under I.R.S. Regulation Section 1.704-2(f).

- 8.3.3 Contributed Property and Book-ups. In accordance with Code Section 704(c) and the I.R.S. Regulations thereunder, as well as I.R.S. Regulation Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(d)(3), income, gain, loss, and deduction with respect to any property contributed (or deemed contributed) to the Company shall, solely for tax purposes, be allocated among the Members so as to take account of any variation between the adjusted basis of the property to the Company for federal income tax purposes and its fair market value at the date of contribution (or deemed contribution). If the adjusted book value of any Company asset is adjusted as provided herein, subsequent allocations of income, gain, loss, and deduction with respect to the asset shall take account of any variation between the adjusted basis of the asset for federal income tax purposes and its adjusted book value in the manner required under Code Section 704(c) and the I.R.S. Regulations thereunder.

8.4 Distribution Upon Dissolution.

- 8.4.1 Distribution. If the Company is dissolved, the assets of the Company shall be distributed to the Members in accordance with the balances in their respective Capital Accounts, after taking into account the allocations of Profit or Loss pursuant to Section 8.2, if any, and distributions, if any, of cash or property pursuant to Section 8.1.

- 8.4.2 Negative Capital Account. No Member shall be obligated to restore a Negative Capital Account.

8.5 General Provisions.

- 8.5.1 Timing of Distributions. Except as otherwise provided in these Articles and subject to Section 608.426 of the Act, the timing and amount of all distributions shall be determined by the Members. The distribution of Net Profits pursuant to Section 8.1 shall be made at times as Members shall deter, but not less than monthly, subject to the last sentence of Section 8.1.

- 8.5.1 Over-Distributions. If the Company distributes more than fifty percent (50%) of Net Profits to the Members in any fiscal year, as may be determined by the Company's audited financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, the Members shall repay the amount of over-distribution in accordance with their respective Percentages, or, at their option, forego receipt of interim distributions in the following fiscal year until such time as the amount of such over-distribution has been repaid in full.

8.5.3 Distributions in Kind. If any assets of the Company are distributed in kind to the Members, any Member entitled to any interest in those assets shall receive that interest as a tenant-in-common with all other Members so entitled. Unless the Members otherwise agree, the value of the assets shall be determined by an independent appraiser who shall be selected by the Members. The Profit or Loss for each unsold asset shall be determined as if the asset had been sold at its fair market value, and the Profit or Loss shall be allocated as provided in Section 8.2 and shall be properly credited or charged to the Capital Accounts of the Members prior to the distribution of the assets in dissolution pursuant to Section 8.3.

8.5.4 Allocations. All Profit and Loss shall be allocated, and all distributions shall be made to the Persons shown on the records of the Company to have been Members as of the last day of the fiscal year for which the allocation or distribution is to be made. Notwithstanding the foregoing, unless the Company's fiscal year is separated into segments, if there is a transfer or an involuntary withdrawal during the fiscal year, the Profit and Loss shall be allocated between the original Member and the successor on the basis of the number of days each was a Member during the taxable year; provided, however, the Company's fiscal year shall be segregated into two or more segments in order to account for Profit, Loss or proceeds attributable to any extraordinary non-recurring items of the Company.

8.5.5 Amendments. The Members are hereby authorized, upon the advice of the Company's tax counsel, to amend this Article 8 to comply with the Code and the I.R.S. Regulations promulgated under Code Section 704(b); provided, however, that no amendment shall materially affect distributions to a Member without the Member's prior written consent.

ARTICLE 9

In the event of such sale, any indebtedness of the Company held by the Selling Member shall be assumed by the purchaser upon the closing of such sale and any indebtedness of the Selling Member held by the Company shall be satisfied by the Selling Member upon the closing of any such sale hereunder. 15.1 No Right to Dissolve Company. No Member shall have the right to terminate this Agreement or dissolve the Company by such Member's expressed will or by withdrawal without the prior written consent of the other Members, which consent the other Members may grant or withhold in their sole discretion.

15.2 Events of Dissolution. The Company will be dissolved upon the first to occur of any of the following (such events collectively called "Events of Dissolution"):

- (d) the withdrawal of a Member without the prior written consent of the other Members;
- (e) the occurrence of a material breach of these Articles by a Member, including the failure to pay a Capital Contribution when due in accordance with Article 4, and such Member fails to remedy such breach within fifteen (15) days after written receipt of notice from the other Members of such breach;
- (f) any deadlock among the Members concerning a Major Decision or any matter having a material effect upon the Business, property or assets of the Company; or
- (g) the occurrence of any other event which results in the dissolution of the Company under the Act.

15.3 Appointment of Liquidation Trustee. If the Company is dissolved, then an accounting of the Company's assets, liabilities and operations through the last day of the month in which the dissolution occurred shall be made, and the affairs of the Company shall be wound up and terminated. A majority of the Members shall appoint one or more Persons to serve as the liquidating trustee of the Company; provided, however, that a Defaulting Member shall not participate in the appointment of the liquidating trustee.

15.4 Duties of the Liquidating Trustee. The liquidating trustee shall be responsible for winding up and terminating the affairs of the Company and will determine all matters in connection therewith (including, without limitation, the arrangements to be made with creditors, to what extent and under what terms the assets of the Company are to be sold, and the amount or necessity of cash reserves to cover contingent liabilities) as the liquidating trustee deems advisable and proper; provided, however, that all decisions of the liquidating trustee will be made in accordance with the fiduciary duty owed by the liquidating trustee to the Company and to each of the Members.

15.5 Distribution of Assets Upon Dissolution. The assets of the Company shall be applied and distributed by the liquidating trustee in the following order:

- first, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities to creditors other than the Members, in the order provided by applicable law, and the expenses of liquidation;
- second, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities to the Members;
- third, to the establishment of such reserves as the liquidating trustee may deem reasonably necessary for any contingent or unforeseen liabilities of the Company, provided that any such reserve shall be paid over by the liquidating trustee to an escrow agent who is not an Affiliate of any Member, with instructions to discharge any of the aforementioned liabilities or obligations and, at the expiration of such reasonable period as the liquidating trustee shall provide, to distribute any balance then remaining in the manner hereinafter provided; and
- fourth, to the Members in accordance with Section 8.3 of these Articles.

15.6 Articles of Dissolution. Upon the distribution of all assets of the Company, the Members shall cause articles of dissolution for the Company to be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Florida in accordance with Sections 608.445 and 608.446 of the Act.

15.7 Distributions in Kind. In the event of a distribution of assets in kind, the assets shall be deemed to have been sold immediately prior to their distribution for their fair market value, any deemed gain or loss recognized as a result of such deemed sale shall be allocated in accordance with Article 5 hereof, and the amount of the distribution will be the fair market value (net of liabilities) of the assets distributed.

15.8 Accounting. The liquidating trustee will provide the Members with a proper accounting of the assets, liabilities and operations of the Company through the last day of the month in which the final liquidating distribution occurs.

15.9 Involuntary Withdrawal. In the event of the Involuntary Withdrawal of a Member, the other Members (the "Non-Withdrawing Members") shall have the option (exercisable by giving notice to such Member or to its assignee, trustee in Bankruptcy, receiver or other legal representative (the "Withdrawing Member") within forty-five (45) days after the Company receives notice of the event giving rise to this option) to purchase all (but not less than all) of the Withdrawing Member's interest in the Company at a price which represents the Withdrawing Member's share of the fair market value of the equity of the Company as of the date of the Involuntary Withdrawal. Such price shall be determined as follows:

- (a) The Non-Withdrawing Members and the Withdrawing Member shall each designate an individual to ascertain the fair market value of the equity of the Company. If these two individuals agree upon the value of said equity, they shall jointly render a written report of their opinion and their agreed upon value shall govern. If these two individuals cannot agree upon such equity value, they shall each render a separate written report and shall together appoint a third party, which may be an individual or an accounting firm, to ascertain the fair market value of the equity of the Company and to render a written report of his opinion. In the event that the two individuals cannot agree upon such a third party, either the Withdrawing Member or the Non-Withdrawing Members may request the American Arbitration Association to name the third party. If the valuation arrived at by the third party is greater than or equal to the higher of the valuations of the first two individuals, the higher of the valuations of the first two individuals shall govern, and if the valuation arrived at by the third party is less than or equal to the lower of the valuations of the first two individuals, the lower of the valuations of the first two individuals shall govern. If the valuation arrived at by the third party is between the valuations rendered by the first two individuals, the valuation of the third party shall govern. The final valuation shall include an apportionment of such equity value among each of the Company's assets.
- (b) The equity value of the Withdrawing Member's interest in the Company shall be established by such Withdrawing Member's Capital Account after a hypothetical allocation to the Members' Capital Accounts of any unrealized gain or loss inherent in the Company's assets as if each Company asset were sold by the Company for its apportioned fair market value as determined pursuant to clause (a) of this Section 15.9. Any such hypothetical allocation shall be made in accordance with the provisions of Article 7.
- (c) The Withdrawing Member and the Non-Withdrawing Members shall each pay all costs of the individual appointed by it hereunder, and they shall share equally the costs of the third individual appointed hereunder, if any. The price for the interest of the Withdrawing Member purchased by the Non-Withdrawing Members shall be payable in cash against a proper written assignment of such interest to the Non-Withdrawing Members within sixty (60) days following the date on which the price of such interest has been finally determined. If, for any reason, the Withdrawing Member cannot or does not pay within a reasonable period its share of the costs referred to in this Section 15.9(c), the Non-Withdrawing Members shall pay the Withdrawing Member's share of said costs and obtain reimbursement therefor by reducing the amount they are to pay for the Withdrawing Member's interest in the Company by the amount of the Withdrawing Member's share of said costs.

15.10 Defaulting Member. Any Member (the "Defaulting Member") causing a dissolution pursuant to Sections 15.2(c), (d) or (e) (except if such act does not constitute an Event of Dissolution pursuant to Section 15.2(c)), without the prior written consent of the other Members, shall have breached these Articles and the other Members shall have the right to damages for such breach and any distributions to which the Defaulting Member would have been entitled shall be reduced by such damages and paid instead to the other Members. In addition, a Defaulting Member shall be subject to the following provisions:

- (a) The Defaulting Member shall have no rights under these Articles to participate in the management of the Company or otherwise participate in the Company's performance.
- (b) The Defaulting Member shall be deemed as of the date of the Event of Dissolution ("Default Date") to have (i) offered to the Members not in default (the "Non-Defaulting Members"), or any designee of the Non-Defaulting Members, the Defaulting Member's Membership Interest in the Company for an amount (the "Offer Price") equal to the Defaulting Member's share of the fair market value of the equity of the Company (determined according to the provisions of Section 15.9) as of the Default Date and (ii) waived all rights or claims it may have against the Company. The Non-Defaulting Members shall have sixty (60) days to accept, in full and not in part, such offer. Upon notification to the Defaulting Member by the Non-Defaulting Members of their (or their designee's) acceptance of the deemed offer and the tender by the Non-Defaulting Members (or their designee) to the Defaulting Member of immediately available funds equal to the Offer Price, the Defaulting Member shall be deemed to have transferred its Membership Interest in the Company to the Non-Defaulting Members (or their designee) and shall cease to have any rights of a Member under this Agreement, but without prejudice to any right of the Non-Defaulting Members to damages from the Defaulting Member. If, within the aforementioned sixty (60) day period, the Non-Defaulting Members fail to notify the Defaulting Member of the Non-Defaulting Members' desire to exercise their right to purchase the Defaulting Member's Membership Interest in the Company, then the Members shall be deemed to have consented to the dissolution and liquidation of the Company.
