Dear Sir or Madam:

Per my phone conversation with your office today, I was notified that the Department of State did not receive the "corrected" (Section 608 NOT 607) Articles of Amendment for the above-named Limited Liability Company that was mailed from our accounting firm to the Department of State on November 30, 2004. I was also told that you still have the $35.00 filing fees associated with the filing of said amendment. The Department is only in need of "corrected" Articles.

Enclosed for your processing is a newly signed and dated set of Articles. Please file as soon as possible as we have been using the company name as amended since the end of last year.
