Dear Ms. Cline:

I am in receipt of your letter of January 30, 2004 regarding the Articles of Organization I submitted for filing regarding my law firm. Thank you for highlighting the filing deficiency and providing me the opportunity to correct it. Enclosed is a revised document which should satisfy the filing requirements.

Please note, however, that after a review of the statutes regarding professional services companies, I determined that I did need to make a modification to the name of my organization. In accordance with the statute, I have revised my firm's name to include the initials "PL" instead of "PLLC." It was quite fortunate that you brought the other deficiency to my attention, and I would like to express my appreciation.

Also, in my original filing, I do not believe that I included the necessary fee for your office to provide me with a certified copy and certificate of status. Please find enclosed a check for $35.00 for these items.

Respectfully,

Raymond B. LaBella
Attorney at Law
