BRADWELL LYNCH LLC

The Bradwell Lynch LLC provides independent consultant and management advisory services. We consult with clients to create organizational and operational changes to achieve business solutions and improvements. We provide insight into asset and resource management in an effort to cut associated cost and improve services. We offer consultant support on the strategies and techniques for competitive sourcing programs, organizational efficiencies, strategic sourcing, performance management and program management.

Bradwell Lynch LLC offers a broad spectrum of federal government antiterrorism, law enforcement, and security expertise, including doctrinal and policy development. This includes a full range of security enhancements from administration and access control to tactics, techniques and procedures for incident response. Oversight, evaluations, organizational structuring and staffing solutions are available.

The Corporation provides policy advice and technical assistance to clients analyzing problems, weighing alternative courses of action while considering long and short term implications and determining appropriate solutions. The members of the LLC provide advice and assistance in developing programs that consider workforce planning, labor needs, marketplace opportunity/industry interest in the function, and geographic scope. Extensive research may be performed to answer specific management questions and address client concerns. On-site evaluations may be required to observe operations, conduct interviews and collect data.
